John Paul
JONES

a musical (concert version)

Music and lyrics by Julian Wagstaff
Book by Julian Wagstaff and Joel Jenkins

John Paul Jones tells the incredible true story of the son of a gardener from Nithsdale, Scotland, who became a hero of the American Revolution as the “father of the American navy”. It is an uplifting, exciting and thought-provoking show. Jones’s tale is one of triumph and adventure, love and loss, and the effect of one man’s consuming ambition on those closest to him.

This brand new semi-staged production of John Paul Jones features musicians from the internationally renowned Scottish Chamber Orchestra, singers from Consort of Voices and guest soloists.

With an eleven-piece orchestra, twenty-strong choir and solo performers in period costume, John Paul Jones promises an unmissable night out for music and theatre fans alike.

Musical Director: Simon Hanson

Director: Christopher Neil

Chorus Master: Stuart Hope
