

Saturday, December 15, 2007

Telegraph Review

REVIEW OF THE YEAR ARTS 5

telegraph.co.uk/trailers

MY 2007 HIGHLIGHT

Art Fair

The Georg Baselitz show at the Royal Academy was a revelation. It rightly highlights him as one of the most significant German artists of the 20th century.

MATT LUCAS

Comedian

My highlight was the musical Parade at the Donmar, about the lynching of a Jewish New Yorker in Georgia in 1915. I saw it three times.

ALEXANDER McCALL SMITH

Novelist

I attended the premiere of Julian Wagstaff's The Turing Test. Computer intelligence is not an obvious subject for opera, but this is a memorable piece of work.